

We work very closely with a large number of 'Outstanding' independent and mainstream primary, secondary and SEN schools, across all of the Birmingham and Coventry area.

TEACH IN BIRMINGHAM

Find your next teaching job
in Birmingham with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education are always available between the hours of 7am and 6pm, to fully support your requirements if needed.

Our consultants have built fantastic relationships with a large array of schools within our region, to open up positions for Teachers and TA's to find their ideal position – whether that be day to day, long-term or permanent.

We work very close with a large number of 'Outstanding' Independent and mainstream Primary, Secondary and SEN schools across all of the Birmingham and Coventry area.

Living in Birmingham

Birmingham is a major city in England's West Midlands region, the second biggest city in the UK. The city is served by the M5, M6, M40 and M42 motorways and the best known motorway junction in the UK 'Spaghetti Junction'. The Reed Office is situated across from Snow Hill train station, and only a 10 minute walk to New Street station with easy access to all major cities within the UK. Birmingham airport offers airline services to many destinations in Europe, North America, the Caribbean, Africa, the Middle East and Asia.

If you love shopping, you will definitely love Birmingham. The Bullring is a landmark mall, with diverse high-street fashion and household shops, plus an abundance of lovely restaurants and bars to wind down and/or socialise with friends, family and colleagues. Birmingham is the only English city outside London to have five Michelin Starred restaurants; Simpsons, Turners, Carters, Purnell's and Adams all in the city centre. There is a thriving independent and artisan food sector in Birmingham, recent years have seen these businesses increasingly showcased at farmers markets, street food events and food festivals. There are also many fine Victorian pubs and bars that can still be found across the city. There is also a plethora of more modern nightclubs and bars along the Broad Street area of the city, which also runs alongside one of Birmingham's many canals.

There are lots of activities in and around Birmingham City Centre; Birmingham Library, Museum of the Jewellery Quarter, Electric Cinema, Cadbury World, Think-tank Museum, Botanical Gardens and also some stunning parks to go to relax, or enjoy picnics and walks. A few miles further out, there are also some great places to visit, these include West Midlands Safari Park, Dudley Zoo and Twycross Zoo famous for its chimpanzees. There are some beautiful historic places a short journey away, Stratford Upon Avon where Shakespeare was born, and Coventry with its beautiful cathedral and stories about Lady Godiva.

“

90% of the schools in the Bournemouth area have been rated “Good” or “Outstanding” by Ofsted according to the latest results

TEACH IN BOURNEMOUTH

Find your next teaching job
in Bournemouth with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education is proud to be working with and supporting some of the most innovative and well reputed Multi Academy Trusts in Dorset, who are leading the way in local education. Most of the trusts we are engaged with are made up of a combination of Primary, Secondary and SEN provisions, with highly experienced and credible senior leadership teams at the helm.

With one of the trusts having achieved “Outstanding” in their most recent inspection they are committed to providing an excellent level of education for their pupils. By prioritising the support and development of their staff, they are able to cater for all key stages and level of ability, while teaching the national curriculum in a fun and interactive way to provide the best possible outcomes and results for all students at the trust.

With a focus on continuous development and innovations, Reed Education are passionate about sourcing the best teachers to join these highly successful Multi Academy Trusts.

Living in Bournemouth

Moving to Dorset:

With miles and miles of sandy beaches, some of the best weather in the UK and the longest life expectancy in Britain, Dorset makes for a happy home. Along with our picture postcard villages, the vibrant towns of Bournemouth, Poole, Dorchester and Weymouth are bursting with places to eat, drink and shop.

Cost of living in Bournemouth:

According to Numbeo research, it is almost 70% cheaper to live in Bournemouth than in London. The cost of food and eating out in Bournemouth is on average just over 7% cheaper, and housing with the average rental cost being over 100% cheaper than in the capital. The average rent for a 2 bed apartment is currently £849 per calendar month and the average price for a two bed apartment being £185,000.

Entertainment:

With something for everyone, Bournemouth can offer some of the most picturesque beaches and coastline scenery, perfect for a Sunday afternoon walk or chance to top up the tan in that long summer break. Bournemouth also offer a plethora of seaside bars to complement the brand new cinema complex and nationally renowned BIC and Pavillion Theatre, that play venue to some UK's top shows and events.

Food and Drink:

The coast and countryside surrounding Bournemouth is rich in local produce. The town centre itself is also a multicultural hub, with international restaurants around every corner. Throughout the year, there's a variety of food and drink events showcasing everything from specialty diets, including vegan, to exotic flavours.

Brighton is a busy and exciting place to live, with a huge creative scene and friendly, welcoming residents; and with London on it's doorstep, it's ever growing appeal is to clear to see.

TEACH IN BRIGHTON

Find your next teaching job in Brighton with Reed Education.

About us

We work with a number of the leading schools ranging from Nurseries, Special Schools, Primary and Secondary schools including Cardinal Newman, Roedean, Varndean, Downs Junior and St John the Baptist.

Living in Brighton

Getting around Brighton is simple, as it is a compact city, and easy to explore on foot or by public transport. Make time to visit the city villages too, including Hove; famous for its colourful beach huts & regency architecture, and nearby Rottingdean, a picturesque, traditional English village.

Discover Brighton attractions such as the Brighton Pier, the Royal Pavilion and the brand new British Airways i360. The city is also home to a cornucopia of cultural delights as well as big name shops and hundreds of independent boutiques.

There are many award-winning restaurants in Brighton catering for all tastes, from classic fish 'n' chips to creative vegetarian restaurants and even a zero waste restaurant.

Brighton is a great base for exploring the stunning Sussex countryside, including the South Downs National Park; a beautiful spot for cycling, hiking and other activities.

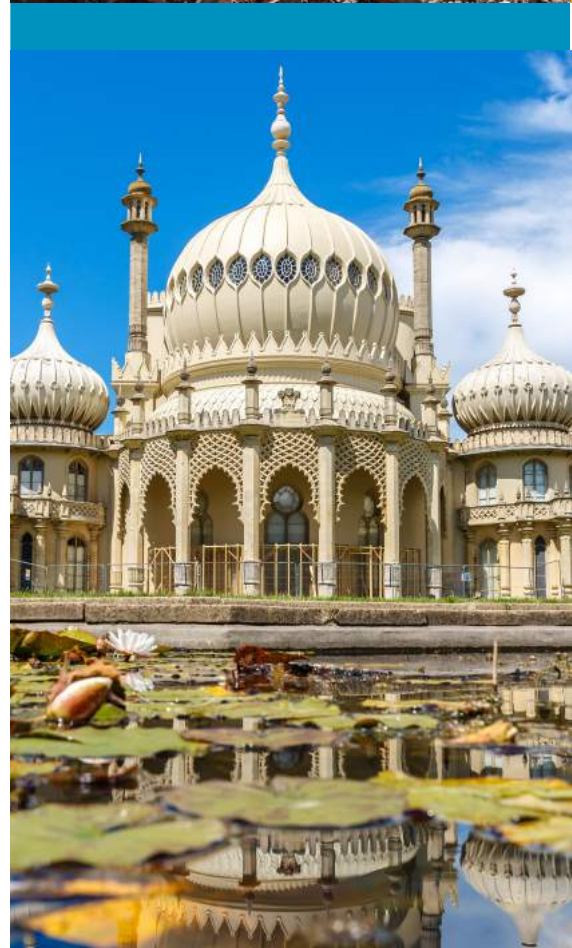

From the independent shops of The Lanes, North Laine & London Road, to the unique shops of Hove & big-name stores of Churchill Square & Brighton Marina, shopping in Brighton is second to none.

The city also offers a great range of markets & fairs, where you can pick up vintage & retro gems and locally produced crafts & foods.

Brighton offers a range of regular LGBT events throughout the year - from the large scale and locally loved celebrations of Brighton Pride in August, to more intimate comedy nights, exhibitions and events.

Brighton really is a city of festivals - from the biggest arts festival in England, to comedy, food, music, film and artists' open houses, you'll usually find somewhere in the city that is in full festival swing. The city knows how to celebrate arts and culture year round, with Brighton festivals packing venues and filling the streets right across the calendar.

Brighton is a busy and exciting place to live, with a huge creative scene and friendly, welcoming residents; and with London on it's doorstep, it's ever growing appeal is to clear to see.

Bristol has England's second-highest number of independent-school places as well as a huge amount of academies and local authority schools.

TEACH IN BRISTOL

Find your next teaching job in Bristol with Reed Education.

About us

We work with a diverse number of Primary, Secondary and SEN schools, ranging from inner-city schools to rural and specialist schools.

Bristol has England's second-highest number of independent-school places as well as a huge amount of academies and local authority schools. Whether it is experience, career development, or a long term position, Bristol has tonnes of opportunity.

Reed Education Bristol is committed to getting it right, and our experienced and dedicated team will guide you through your options. Each school and each individual is different so we know how important it is to fully understand our clients and to find right the school for you.

Living in Bristol

Bristol has been crowned 'Best place to live in the UK' (The Sunday Times, 2014 and 2017), as well as winning the EU's European Green Capital Award in 2015.

So why are we so great?

Our beautiful cityscapes – the Cathedral, Georgian terraces and Clifton suspension bridge to be explored via our award-winning cycle tracks.

Our renowned food and drink scene – From gourmet to street food; award winning clubs and country pubs.

Our thriving art scene and creativity - famous for Banksy, Brunel, Wallace & Gromit, Ribena and chocolate bars.

Our Spirit – a cultural melting pot where individuality and community is embraced; Glastonbury Festival is just down the road!

Our local scenery - with Bath, the Cotswolds, Cardiff, and Devon on our doorstep you can spend your weekends doing extreme sports, shopping or relaxing in country manors.

Transport

Bristol is one of the most easily accessible cities in the UK, with excellent regional and national road, rail, bus and coach services.

The international airport has operators flying to 112 different countries, and Bristol Temple Meads railway station is the largest rail hub in the west of England, with direct services available to London, Scotland, Wales, Manchester and Birmingham.

In the city that inspired great minds from Charles Darwin to Stephen Hawking, you'll find one of the world's oldest universities, the 1871 Gothic-revival All Saints Church and the gardens favoured by 17th-century poet John Milton.

TEACH IN CAMBRIDGE

Find your next teaching job in Cambridge with Reed Education.

About us

We work with a range of Local Authority schools, Multi-Academy Trusts and Independent schools across Cambridge centre and the surrounding towns. We also work alongside a large 1:1 tuition company that offers both full and part time 1:1 teaching locally. This is normally outside of the classroom and offers a different option to working within a mainstream school.

Living in Cambridge

In the city that inspired great minds from Charles Darwin to Stephen Hawking, you'll find one of the world's oldest universities, the 1871 Gothic-revival All Saints Church and the gardens favoured by 17th-century poet John Milton. Cambridge is also home to the ADC Theatre, the oldest university playhouse in England. Evenings are perfect for taking in the mix of traditional pubs and contemporary restaurants. There is lots to see and do in Cambridge including a variety of museums and excellent shopping. You can take a relaxing, sightseeing walk down the backs of the colleges or even a punt down the River Cam to take it all in.

From our office based in the City of London, we service five of the best boroughs in London to live and work in.

TEACH IN CENTRAL LONDON

Find your next teaching job in Central London with Reed Education.

About us

Central London has an eclectic mix of high-performing state schools (some with exam pass rates of 85% + A*-C), leading independent / prep schools & pioneering academies, allowing our expert consultants to find the perfect match for our teachers, whatever their needs.

One of the schools we work with has been called the “Outstanding of Outstanding Schools” by Ofsted, and another has been in the top 10 comprehensives in the UK for GCSE progress for the last 4 years.

One of our primary schools was voted in the top 10 schools to attend in the UK, whilst the Borough of Camden is regularly in the top 10 best performing areas in the UK for Primary schools.

Finally, all of our boroughs operate on the highest possible teacher pay scale in the UK; meaning you will not find a better paid teaching job anywhere else!

Living in Central London

From our office based in the City of London, we service five of the best boroughs in London to live and work in; Camden (famous for its world-renowned music scene), Islington (regularly voted one of the best places to live in the UK), Hackney (renowned for its various trendy hubs such as Dalston & Broadway Market), Haringey (the home of Tottenham Hotspur & Alexandra Palace) & Westminster (where you'll find Buckingham Palace, Soho, 10 Downing Street, Big Ben & the Houses of Parliament).

The boroughs we cover are known for their world famous attractions and destinations, and are able to cater for all tastes. Some of the most well-known attractions include: the scenic ponds and unrivaled city views of Hampstead Heath, the bustling music scene of Camden, the shopping on Oxford Street, the nightlife of Soho, the football teams of Tottenham Hotspur and Arsenal, Regent's Park & Hyde Park, the view of fireworks at Alexandra Palace, the Houses of Parliament, Big Ben and many, many more...

It is also home to Michelin Star restaurants, hundreds of bars & pubs serving beer and cocktails from around the world; it even has access to four airports for quick weekend breakaways to Europe or for long-haul travels. From Euston and Paddington station, you can also travel directly to various other UK locations, such as Manchester, Liverpool, Devon & the Lake District within hours!

Property prices for all budgets

One beds ranging from £850 - £1,600 per month, and two beds from £1,200 - £2,000 + per month.

Famous residents include: Simon Cowell, Stella McCartney, Elton John, Kate Moss, Jude Law, Paul McCartney, Ewan McGregor, Katy Perry, James McAvoy, Keira Knightley, Liam Gallagher. Well, if it's good enough for them...

Chelmsford is England's newest city. With exciting restaurants, top brands and amazing events happening all year round it's fast becoming the place to visit and live outside of London.

TEACH IN CHELMSFORD

Find your next teaching job
in Chelmsford with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education Chelmsford work with a number of outstanding and good schools across the county of Essex. There are a number of large Academy Trusts and Cluster schools offering daily, permanent and long term opportunities. Working to recruit across the age range, Reed Education Chelmsford offer opportunities in Primary, Secondary and SEN schools across Essex.

- Are you looking to gain experience in various schools?
- Do you like the challenge of adapting to new teaching environments?
- Are you looking for a long term or placement when you relocate?
- Do you want to work with a friendly, helpful and fun team?

If the answer is yes to any of these you really don't need to look anywhere else, we offer it all. Our friendly, helpful and dedicated team are here to help. We are education recruitment specialists across Early Years, Primary, Secondary and SEN.

Living in Chelmsford

Chelmsford is England's newest city. With exciting restaurants, top brands and amazing events happening all year round it's fast becoming the place to visit and live outside of London.

Chelmsford is surrounded by stunning countryside. This city caters for all, packed with history (Chelmsford is the birthplace of radio) and culture, the city offers outdoor activities, themed events and various parks and open spaces. Hylands Park is home to the famous V-Festival and Hylands house. The house was built in 1730 and is set in 574 acres of parkland which includes ancient woodland, grassland ponds, lakes and formal gardens. The city itself is full of restaurants, bars and a buzzing nightlife Chelmsford City has something to appeal to all ages.

Chelmsford is fast becoming a retail heaven for shopping lovers or those who just fancy a tea or coffee in one of the various cafés around the city. The open air shopping centre in Bond Street is home to a new John Lewis store, several restaurants/cafes, various retails outlets and a luxury 'Everyman' cinema. Chelmsford really is a one stop shop for everything you will need in your life.

Cost of living is comparable to other large city's and towns in the UK. Due to Chelmsford being so large, the cost of property prices can vary from a 1 bedroom rental in the city centre £783 per month to a 3 bedroom apartment outside the city centre £1,130 per month.

Offering easy transport links by rail into London (30mins) and various road and bus connections across the county this really is the place best place to be in Essex!

“
Situating between two major cities (Liverpool & Manchester)
which are only 45 minutes away, Cheshire offers the opportunity to enjoy city life as well as a relaxed
rural lifestyle.”

TEACH IN CHESHIRE

Find your next teaching job in Cheshire with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education Cheshire is the predominant agency used for supply of teachers by schools in the Cheshire area. We have over 30 schools who use us as their first choice for all day to day, long term and permanent roles. We also have strong relationships with a further 200 schools in the county. We work with a variety of schools; from private schools to SEN schools, which means that we can cater for all of our teachers needs across the Primary and Secondary curriculum.

Living in Cheshire

The county of Cheshire borders Merseyside, Greater Manchester, Staffordshire and Shropshire, with a population of around 1 million. It is mostly rural, with a number of small towns, all of which offer excellent transport links; meaning it is an ideal central point for relocation. Cheshire is considered as an affluent county and offers some of the best education establishments in the UK. Situated between two major cities (Liverpool and Manchester) which are only 45 minutes away, it offers the opportunity to enjoy city life as well as a relaxed rural lifestyle.

“We are very lucky in Devon and Cornwall to have some of the most consistently high performing schools in the UK. There are a couple that regularly top the national league tables which has a positive impact on other schools in the area too.”

TEACH IN DEVON OR CORNWALL

Find your next teaching job in Devon or Cornwall with Reed Education.

About us

As with all areas, Multi Academy Trusts are emerging across the South West and in particular we are working with two very large, new organisations. One encompasses 10 schools, both Primary and Secondary, across South Devon. The other is a large Special Needs MAT that is spreading very quickly across the region to meet the need for referrals in different locations. Both have regular opportunities at all levels for both permanent and contract positions, and for short and long term temporary work too.

Of course, with large parts of the area being very rural there are some schools that are yet untouched by the influence of the academy model. We support those schools too, meaning as your local recruiter Reed Education Plymouth can offer a range of working environments to suit all areas of interests and aspirations.

Living in Devon & Cornwall

If you are considering relocation then living in Devon or Cornwall can immediately bring you the change of pace or lifestyle you have been dreaming about. Whether it's the endless miles of stunning sandy beaches, the breathtaking views across acres of open moorland or the picture postcard towns and villages on repeat as you drive from A to B, there is much to love about this part of the world.

But, it's not all windy walks and wellies; major cities such as Exeter, Plymouth and Truro now offer all the benefits of modern living with all having major revamps recently. There are Michelin starred restaurants, some very cool bars and country pubs in equal measure. The best bit is that all of this could be on your doorstep, wherever you are in Devon or Cornwall, there really is something for everyone.

“
Gloucestershire
splits into three of the most stunning areas of England, the Cotswolds, the Royal Forest of Dean and the Severn Vale.

TEACH IN GLOUCESTERSHIRE

Find your next teaching job in Gloucestershire with Reed Education.

Our schools

Our central Cheltenham office works with both independent and mainstream primary, secondary and SEN schools across the area. Along with the schools in the two big cities of Cheltenham and Gloucester, we also work with a large number of schools further afield including many rural schools.

Living in Gloucestershire

Gloucestershire splits into three areas: it's a major part of the Cotswolds (an area of outstanding natural beauty), the Royal Forest of Dean and the Severn Vale. Each of these areas are stunningly beautiful in their own unique ways. The M4 and the M40 provide easy access to Gloucestershire from London, and the M5 is a direct link to Birmingham and the counties of Devon and Cornwall. Cheltenham hosts several festivals of culture including literature, jazz, and science and is famous for its regency architecture.

Kent proudly boasts a total of 822 schools, including 129 Independent schools, spread throughout the Garden of England.

TEACH IN KENT

Find your next teaching job in Kent with Reed Education.

About us

Education standards in Kent schools have significantly improved in the last five years and now place Kent at, or above, the national average at every key stage of a child's education.

- Overall 90% of our schools are now rated good or outstanding by Ofsted which is 1% above the national average of 89%.
- The number of key stage 1 and 2 pupils achieving the expected standard in English Reading, English Writing and Mathematics is around 5% ahead of the national average.

Having the largest local authority in the UK, Kent also provides a breadth of choice from Grammar Schools, Academies, Alliances, Multi Trusts, Free Schools and Co-ed/single sex Comprehensives – all with the commitment and drive to offer the children and young adults of our community the best possible learning experiences.

Living in Kent

Kent provides a unique place to live and work, with a wonderful and eclectic mix of historic and contemporary culture.

Canterbury – the City of Kent, boasts the beautiful cathedral and one of the top teacher training facilities in the UK. Theatre, the Arts and History rub alongside Michelin Star restaurants, boutique shopping and a night life to rival the larger cities in other counties!

Ashford – home of Eurostar taking you to the heady delights of Paris within 2 hours! Or the High Speed rail link taking you to London within the hour.

The Turner Contemporary – nestled amidst the boho artistic chic of Margate; turn back time as you stroll down the recently renovated harbour side and catch a ride in Dreamland Margate!

The White Cliffs of Dover and Dover Castle, pitched against the blue skies that once saw the Battle of Britain take place, come into view as you sail into Dover Harbour aboard a luxury ferry; bringing you back from Calais where fine wine and French cuisine beckoned after a relaxing 2 hour channel cruise.

Aspinall Wildlife Parks, The Historic Dockyard, Leeds Castle...the list is endless!

Come to Kent and see why this truly is the Garden of England!

With its history based on its port and canal, Lancaster is an ancient settlement, dominated by Lancaster Castle, Lancaster Priory Church and the Ashton Memorial.

TEACH IN LANCASTER AND CUMBRIA

Find your next teaching job in Lancaster with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education Lancaster has been established since 2001 and is one of the longest serving agencies in the area. Due to our unrivalled history we currently work with over 175 schools across the Lancaster, Morecambe, Wyre and Fylde and Cumbria area.

We work with a high number of our schools on an exclusive basis, which allows new and existing teachers and support staff unprecedented access to a wide range of temporary, long term and permanent opportunities.

We also run Whole School Recruitment for all clients, so our candidate base varies from qualified teachers, tutors, support staff, pastoral care, welfare, administration support and senior management roles, to name a few.

Living in Lancaster and Cumbria

Lancaster is situated on the River Lune in the heart of Lancashire and close to the County of Cumbria.

With its history based on its port and canal, Lancaster is an ancient settlement, dominated by Lancaster Castle, Lancaster Priory Church and the Ashton Memorial. The city has seen much improvement in recent years with the addition of major department stores and a wide variety of restaurants and bars which give Lancaster a unique night life.

The area offers fantastic transport links to the county of Cumbria, as well as easily accessible routes to other major cities such as Preston, Bolton and Manchester. Creation of the new Bay Gateway has made links to the M6 both north and south far easier, and has reduced travelling times and opened the counties up further. The county of Cumbria is world famous and boasts some incredible breath taking scenery around its many rural towns and villages.

TEACH IN LEICESTER

Find your next teaching job in Leicester with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education Leicester are currently working with a large number of county and city Primary and Secondary schools, as well as specialist SEN units that cater for all statemented and EHCP students. We have been established for over 9 years and have an excellent name for quality of service with both our candidates and our clients. With over 35 years of recruitment experience within the branch you would be hard pushed to find a more knowledgeable team to help secure your next exciting role.

Living in Leicester

Leicester is a city based in the East Midlands region. Leicester Cathedral, where Richard III was reinterred in 2015, has stood at the city's heart for over 900 years. You can explore the ruins of Leicester Castle, where Richard III spent some of his last days, or lie in Castle Gardens near the River Soar. Leicester's night life is thriving with many bars and nightclubs that cater for all tastes. Or you might prefer to visit a museum or gallery, or hire a boat on the Grand Union canal or travel back in time on a steam train at the Great Central Railway. You could enjoy a local festival, or explore a Leicestershire stately home.

Leicestershire cannot fail to inspire you. From great family attractions to top class restaurants, there's plenty to discover.

There is something for everyone in the Lincolnshire & South Yorkshire area; with a variety of schools, from small village schools to larger town schools or academy trusts.

TEACH IN LINCOLNSHIRE & SOUTH YORKSHIRE

Find your next teaching job in Lincolnshire and South Yorkshire with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education Scunthorpe work with a plethora of schools across Lincolnshire, Doncaster, Scunthorpe and Grimsby. The Scunthorpe team are second to none and work to uphold REED company values to ensure the best professional service possible is given to everyone.

There is something for everyone in these areas; with a variety of schools, from small village schools to larger town schools or academy trusts. They all offer a varied range from 'Outstanding' to 'Needs Improvement'. Our schools all strive to do their best for their staff and children, Reed Education love to get involved and give our support through helping at their fundraising events.

So whether you are looking for day to day, long term, or permanent in primary, secondary, SEN, or leadership roles – the Scunthorpe team will help you!

Living in Lincolnshire & South Yorkshire

Moving to Lincolnshire –

Offering some of the most beautiful scenery in the country – from natural walks to over 30 miles of glorious golden sands. Lincolnshire has a multitude of delectable healthy foods due to the amazing farmlands, offering delicacies such as haslet, sausages and cheeses. If you enjoy ‘rocking’ nights in the vibrant city centre, looking around historical famous sites, and seeing wildlife in their natural habitat such as the Winter Grey Seals – then come to Lincoln!

Moving to Doncaster –

Famous for the St Ledger and its bustling market! An ideal town to live in as it offers amazing transport links, making places like London and Edinburgh easy to get to, and with Robin Hood Airport being on the doorstep, worldwide travel is at hand! Doncaster nightlife is legendary, suiting all ages, and don’t forget to visit Yorkshire Wildlife Park with the family.

Moving to Scunthorpe/Grimsby –

Perfect areas to work as you can access anywhere with ease. If you are wanting walks in beautiful parks or strolling through nature reserves, then look no further. These towns offer so much for everyone and both have amazing venues for all acts/bands all year round.

“Liverpool is a vibrant city with lots to offer. It’s well known for its friendly and welcoming atmosphere, lively night life & famous musical roots (The home of the Beatles & Cilla Black), not to mention the picturesque docklands, cathedrals and museums.

TEACH IN LIVERPOOL

Find your next teaching job in Liverpool with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education work with a number of outstanding primary, secondary and SEN schools across the Merseyside area. If a friendly and nurturing environment is what you are looking for, to help with your career development then Liverpool is the place for you.

Living in Liverpool

There are plenty of places offering good food and entertainment, with a number of restaurants, pubs, bars and night clubs. Eating out in Liverpool is thrilling, with many choices on every street. If shopping is what you are into- whether you’re a clothes and shoes fanatic, a gym buff, an up all night gamer or a one off, independent shopper, Liverpool has it all.

Let’s not forget Liverpool is home to two major football teams- Liverpool and Everton- Derby day is a must, the atmosphere is amazing inside and outside the stadium. And the Grand National- is always a great excuse to get dressed up and have a day out with friends. If plays, musicals, comedy nights or concerts are your interest, there are many to choose from, including one off plays, intimate concerts and the Echo arena on the docks.

“Be part of the revolution!
Work in the most modern
city in England,
with the youngest population in the country.”

TEACH IN MILTON KEYNES

Find your next teaching job in Milton Keynes with Reed Education.

About us

We work with a range of schools in Milton Keynes, Bedfordshire and Northamptonshire across nurseries, primary and secondary stages.

Our team is also dedicated to SEN and has strong links with alternative education provisions. We are currently working closely with a large trust in Milton Keynes, to support their recruitment of teaching and support staff; so a wealth of opportunities are available for a wide range of candidates with vocational, sporting and social skills, alongside traditional qualifications.

We are proud to be currently working in partnership with MK DONS, in running an SEN football tournament throughout the year with a final played in MK Dons Stadium!

Living in Milton Keynes

Milton Keynes....City of Dreams

Be part of the revolution! Work in the most modern city in England with the youngest population in the country. Just 40 minutes commute to London Euston and 30 minutes from Luton Airport; the hub of cheap European travel. But why would you need to leave Milton Keynes with such a host of activities?

Home to the Snow Dome, Indoor Sky Diving, Water Sports, Planet Ice, Golf, Bounce and MK Dons Football...fans of sports will be spoilt for choice.

If you are looking for entertainment, there is the IMAX 3D Cinema, a modern theatre with top-class acoustics (and a mobile roof!) that hosts West End productions throughout the year. With over 500 restaurants and 200 shops in the city center alone, Milton Keynes is a buzzing hub of activities.

Milton Keynes is famous for its grid system, reducing traffic, a specific cycle path and lots of green spaces. The city prides itself on environmental innovation and there are many parking spaces for electric cars.

Reed Education
Enfield work with Independent,
SEN and mainstream schools and academies within the Barnet,
Enfield and Hertfordshire boroughs.

TEACH IN NORTH LONDON

Find your next teaching job in North London with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education Enfield work with Independent, SEN and mainstream schools and Academies within the Barnet, Enfield and Hertfordshire boroughs. We have great relationships with a variety of schools and ensure that the induction process for all our teachers are strong, supportive and all that is needed to start off your career on a high.

Living in Enfield

Enfield has links to London overground and underground lines, a bus station near by, free parking and a variety of parks. In addition there is a large shopping centre and multiple leisure centres, a cinema and variety of restaurants and bars.

With quick links to London Liverpool Street, Oxford Street, Moorgate, Old Street and Leicester square but a low living cost you are sure to find something of interest..

From the ancient University of Oxford to the rolling hills of the Cotswolds there is so much rich history and culture for you to explore.

TEACH IN OXFORD OR BUCKINGHAMSHIRE

Find your next teaching job in Oxford or Buckinghamshire with Reed Education.

Our schools

Oxford

Reed Education work with a number of outstanding Primary, Secondary and SEN schools in the area that can offer fantastic career development in this vibrant and atmospheric city. We work with a large number of private and independent schools as well as mainstream schools and would love to hear from you.

Buckinghamshire

Buckinghamshire is one of the most picturesque and visually stunning counties in England, and REED Education have splendid relationships with the Primary, Secondary and SEN schools in the area. From the Northamptonshire border and Buckingham itself down to Great Missenden and High Wycombe, we can help you find the right school.

Living in Oxford and Buckinghamshire

Oxford

Whether you want to discover an ancient civilisation at a world famous museum, wander around some of the most famous landmarks in the UK or relax with an afternoon tea, you will find something to do for all occasions and all members of the family. Eating out in Oxford is an eclectic affair, with restaurants serving cuisine from around the world.

If you love a good night out, Oxford has plenty to offer from live music venues to historic pubs serving real ale. Families will love Oxford museums, teens can enjoy the new shopping centre (due to open in September 2017) which will be one of the largest in the South-East and don't miss a family trip to Cotswold Wildlife Park to get meet the giraffes!

Buckinghamshire

From the gardens of Waddesdon Manor to Bletchley Park and its fascinating history, Buckinghamshire is a county like no other. With more rolling green hills and wonderful huge parks it boasts more countryside than just about any other county, and also has superb rail and road links to both London and the Midlands.

Delve deep into the Hell Fire caves, enjoy the award winning museum at Amersham or visit the large shopping centres full of attractions in both High Wycombe and Aylesbury for a taste of this eclectic and unique county. With award winning gastro pubs and micro breweries, unique farm shops, restaurants and cafes serving locally produced food and drink, and cream tea to die for, the best places to eat and drink in Buckinghamshire are found around every corner.

Preston is ideally placed to explore the delights of the North West of England. Situated on the interchange of three motorways, Preston is within an hour's drive of the beautiful English Lake District and with 45 minutes of the internationally renowned cities of Manchester and Liverpool.

TEACH IN PRESTON

Find your next teaching job in Preston with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education Preston been established since 2002 and is one of the longest standing agencies in the area. Due to our unrivaled history we currently work with over 200 schools across Preston and central Lancashire. We currently work with a wide range of private Nurseries, Primary, Secondary and SEN schools who are Local Authority controlled as well as a wide range of Academies.

Living in Preston

Preston obtained city status in 2002, becoming England's 50th city in the 50th year of Queen Elizabeth II's reign. Preston has historical links with ancient Roman activity and was at the cornerstone of the English Industrial Revolution.

Take a walk round the dock basin, watch a film at the Odeon cinema, have food and drink in The Ribble Pilot or a pizza at Baffito's. Visit the Ribble Steam Railway & museum and travel along the 1½ mile dock and riverside line crossing the Preston Marina via a swing bridge, and running alongside the River Ribble on the site of the former sprawling docklands.

Ricky Gervais (The Office) is from Reading and the Queen resides locally in Windsor. She's been known to frequent the famous race courses in Windsor and Newbury on various occasions.

TEACH IN READING

Find your next teaching job in Reading with Reed Education.

About us

Our Reading team has over 35 years of education recruitment experience in Berkshire! We have two ex teachers in the team, who are now experienced recruitment consultants, so they can use their expertise to support you with your lesson observation and the interview itself! We have strong partnerships with various schools throughout Berkshire and work across the primary, secondary and SEN sectors.

Living in Reading

Reading football club isn't up to much, but London Irish Play Premiership Rugby at Reading's stadium. Twickenham and Wembley are only a short train journey away, plus Reading has a thriving night life consisting of quality restaurants, bars and clubs, which open until 6am! The train station is one of the biggest outside of London and you can travel throughout England, Wales and Scotland from Reading! You can be in London within 25 minutes without paying London living prices!

“Greenwich is a great area to explore, whether its history, old pubs or a fantastic view of the river, Greenwich has it all.

TEACH IN SOUTH LONDON

Find your next teaching job in South London with Reed Education.

About us

We are currently working with a number of schools within the South West and South East area. We have contracts with the Haberdashers Aske Federation, CFBT and Inspire schools, to name a few.

We also cover the Greenwich area, which is a royal borough of London. Greenwich is a great area to explore, whether its history, old pubs or a fantastic view of the river, Greenwich has it all. Greenwich is a borough built of local cafés and traditional English food, and if you fancy something more unique, Greenwich market has something for everyone. This borough also has great wildlife and gardens, making you feel as if you are miles out of the city - like a secret village with its riverside bars, beautiful architecture and lively nightlife, what more could you want?

Southampton boasts some wellperforming
schools, with 84%
of primary school pupils and 75% of secondary school pupils attending good or outstanding schools according to the Ofsted league tables.

TEACH IN SOUTHAMPTON

Find your next teaching job
in Southampton with Reed Education.

Our Schools

Reed Education work with an outstanding cluster of schools in the Southampton area that have a large, friendly, high performing staff team who are committed to ongoing staff development. Their Executive Head Teacher is a National Leader of Education, an Ofsted Inspector and is well supported by a strong staff including a Head of School.

There are now 4 schools in the cluster, 3 of which have received Ofsted ratings of 'Good' or 'Outstanding' for 3 years in a row.

The Schools actively promote fundamental values within their curriculum. This forms part of their SMSC ethos and it is woven throughout their teaching and learning, in particular through PSHE. Their mission is to provide every child has the right to high quality teaching that will enable them to reach for and beyond their potential. Our children will become confident learners who have a desire to realise their aspirations.

Moving to Southampton

With its scenic location on England's sunny south coast, it's no surprise that the sea plays a big part in Southampton life. A bustling port city with a long seafaring history, Southampton has grown from industrial hub to vibrant city.

Cost of living

According to the Expatistan cost of living index, it is 34% cheaper to live in Southampton than in London. While food costs work out roughly similar in both cities, housing, transportation and entertainment are all significantly cheaper than in the capital.

Average Southampton prices for a flat are around £155,000 and for a semi-detached house around £245,000. Average rental costs for a 2-bedroom property in Southampton come in at around £840.

Entertainment

Southampton has a great offering of activities, attractions and nightlife, with something to appeal to all ages. Eating out in Southampton is an eclectic affair, with restaurants serving cuisine from around the world. If you love a good night out, Southampton has plenty to offer from live music venues to historic pubs serving real ale.

Families will love Southampton's museums, teens can head to West Quay, one of the largest shopping centres in England and don't miss a family trip to Sprinkles for the best gelato in the city!

Outdoor activities

One of Southampton's main attractions is its proximity to New Forest, a 138,000 acre national park, rich with all kinds of wildlife. If you love to keep active, Southampton is a fantastic place to do it. Learn to sail, enjoy a round of golf, jog through Riverside Park, or get involved in team sports at the vast Outdoor Sports Centre.

“An area reputed for their friendly people with a down-to-earth nature, Staffordshire blends some of the best of the English countryside with easy access to the most cosmopolitan areas in the country.

TEACH IN STAFFORDSHIRE

Find your next teaching job
in Staffordshire with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education work with a wide range of schools across Stoke-on-Trent and Staffordshire. A diverse area, schools here offer a unique experience to teachers, as the region operates with not only the usual Primary and Secondary schools but also a three tiered school system with First, Middle and High schools. This offers teachers across Staffordshire a unique career development opportunity.

Living in Staffordshire

With the rolling hills of the Staffordshire Moorlands to the North, the stunning gardens of Shugborough Hall to the South of Stafford and the growing post-industrial city of Stoke-on-Trent nestled in the middle, Staffordshire is a popular county located in the heart of England. London is only 1hr 25mins away by train, and Manchester, Birmingham and Nottingham within an hour, so you're choosing a fantastic central hub to explore the UK. With house prices in the area almost half the National average, living in Staffordshire doesn't cost the earth – leaving you free to settle in and make the most of all the county offers!

Surrey boasts some of the highest performing state schools in the country, with more than 80% rated 'Outstanding' or 'Good'.

TEACH IN SURREY

Find your next teaching job in Surrey with Reed Education.

About us

Surrey is home some of the highest performing state schools in the country, with more than 80% rated 'Outstanding' or 'Good'. The Real Schools Guide 2017 has 3 Surrey schools in its Top 50, one of which is in the top 5.

With 386 schools in the county in total and nearly 153,500 pupils on roll in January 2017, Reed Education work with a variety of Surrey schools including a number of multi-academy trusts. As a result, we have some excellent partnerships with strong leadership teams enabling us to support the personal and career development of our candidates.

With a high volume sixth form curriculum in our schools, we are always looking for teachers who can support learning to Key Stage 4. There is also a strong SEND provision in the county so teachers and support staff with expertise delivering SEN are in high demand.

Living in Surrey

Surrey is 'an area of natural outstanding beauty', with more wooded areas than any other county in the UK.

Cost of Living -

Surrey sits within the London commuter belt with regular rail services into the capital & south coast and easy access to the M25, M3 and M23. It's also close to both London Heathrow and Gatwick airports.

This does mean that house prices and living costs can be higher than other parts of the UK (average values of more than £500,000) but, there are some great affordable housing initiatives for first-time buyers and with employment stable at 76%, Surrey boasts some of the highest average incomes in the country to counter this.

What to See & Do -

Outdoors: Kew Gardens, Royal Horticultural Society Wisley, Surrey Downs, Royal Bushy Park, castles and museums, Godstone Farm or the British Wildlife Centres, boat tours along the canal or walk through Reigate Caves

Shopping: There are a number of shopping hubs across the county including Guildford, Woking and Reigate offering both high end boutiques and department stores

Thrillseekers: Thorpe Park and Chessington World of Adventures

Sports fans: Excellent golf courses hosting annual PGA Championships as well as multiple racecourses and Brooklands Motorsports Museum. There are multiple sports parks and leisure centres or, for the brave, an outdoor lido

Foodies: Numerous Michelin star and AA Rosette restaurants as well as lovely country pubs and farmers markets. Surrey also boasts England's largest vineyard and numerous breweries to visit.

Nightlife: A healthy mix of nightclubs, wine bars and traditional pubs as well as theatres & cinema, bowling, trampoline parks and an ice rink.

“
Stonehenge,
Lacock,
Salisbury
Cathedral...
Wiltshire is a stunning
place to live.

TEACH IN SWINDON OR WILTSHIRE

Find your next teaching job in Swindon or Wiltshire with Reed Education.

Our schools

Swindon

Reed Education work with a large number of Primary, Secondary and SEN schools in Swindon that can offer fantastic career development. As one of only two agencies based in the area and with a manager with 10 years recruitment experience, we can offer you expert local knowledge and insights into each individual school, to allow you to find the right school for you.

Wiltshire

Wiltshire is one of the most picturesque counties in Britain and with only one city (Salisbury). it is predominantly made up of smaller rural schools. Reed Education work with Primary, Secondary and SEN schools in all four corners of the county, meaning our knowledge of the schools and transport links is second to none.

Living in Swindon and Wiltshire

Swindon

With two junctions of the M4 servicing Swindon, its transport links are exceptional. You can get to both London and Cardiff in an hour via the M4 or by train, making it the ideal location for someone with friends and family across the south of England.

Swindon is an affordable place to live, and is regularly named in the top 10 best places to work, and top 30 best places to live in the UK!

Wiltshire

Stonehenge, Lacock, Salisbury Cathedral.... Wiltshire is a stunning place to live. Whether it is the west country air, the food and drink, or the World Heritage Sites, there will always be something that will make you want to live in this beautiful county.

We welcome people from different cultures, faiths and backgrounds in Wales.

Our increasingly multicultural society has led to an enrichment of new traditions, exciting new art, music, foods to try and much more.

TEACH IN WALES

Find your next teaching job in Wales with Reed Education.

About us

Our Cardiff Office works with both independent and mainstream primary, secondary and SEN schools across the whole of South Wales. Along with schools in the two big cities of Cardiff and Newport. We also work with a large number of schools further afield including many of the schools based in the beautiful Welsh Valleys.

Living in Wales

Wales has some of the lowest living costs in the UK and most of the population enjoy a high standard of living. If you feel like getting active, Wales offers plenty. We're a small nation that comes equipped with mountains, hills, rivers and the sea, so you can easily try whatever takes your fancy - how about mountain biking in the morning and a round of golf at a leading European course in the evening? Our towns and cities are ready to entertain you every night of the week. We have a thriving nightlife in Wales and have a number of places to meet up with friends and have a good chat or a dance. Including the legendary Mumbles in Swansea which offers a mile long stretch of pubs and restaurants for a relaxing night along the coast.

West London has some of the highest performing schools in London, with the Hounslow borough having the top performing schools in the city.

TEACH IN WEST LONDON

Find your next teaching job in West London with Reed Education.

About us

We currently work with a number of outstanding schools in West London, from top Independent schools to forward thinking academy schools. Our schools are diverse, and we work with a number of faith specific schools, free schools, Academies and independents across West London, with some very high profile alumni and highly achieving pupils.

All West London Schools promote diversity and inclusive education, whilst keeping the students on track for high academic results. West London also boasts the first free school in London, which has seen some fantastic results. All of the schools promote fundamental values within their curriculum, having a passion to ensure every child reaches their potential and beyond. We work with a number of Academy Trusts, who look for the most highly skilled and passionate teachers to join their schools. With this, there is huge opportunity for leadership, pastoral and SEND positions.

Living in West London

West London is a district that has a dynamic mix of nationalities, cultures and ethnicities across its many communities. The area as a whole offers an eclectic mix of green spaces, sites of historical interest, restaurants, cafes, bars and plenty of things to do.

Entertainment:

If you know anything about London, you will certainly know about the wonderful sites within West London. From the beautifully historic Kensington Palace and Kew Gardens, to the fantastic collection of (free) museums, you may find there are not enough hours in the day. You have Notting Hill – Carnival, Portobello Road, the Natural History Museum, the Science Museum and the Victoria & Albert Museum.

And please don't forget about access to some of the most high profile sporting events at Twickenham and Wembley Stadiums.

Accommodation:

Broadly speaking, the boroughs surrounding central London (Zone 1) are the most expensive – this includes Kensington, Notting Hill and Ladbroke Grove areas, Knightsbridge and Chelsea. But if you venture just a mile (or a tube stop or two) further west, you could settle down in Shepherd's Bush, Ealing or Fulham for a lot less rent and cheaper council tax too.

Transport:

Of course being based in London, you have a wealth of travel opportunities. Transport Links are great with the underground (Northern, District, Central, Metropolitan, Piccadilly and Circle lines) and you can easily access all of the major airports – Luton, Stansted, Heathrow, Gatwick, City and Southend.

Wolverhampton is a city and metropolitan borough in the West Midlands. Its train station is on the Birmingham loop of the West Coast main line also with easy access to London, Glasgow, Manchester and Wales.

TEACH IN WOLVERHAMPTON

Find your next teaching job
in Wolverhampton with Reed Education.

About us

Reed Education works closely with a large range of independent and mainstream primary, secondary and SEN schools, classed as 'Outstanding' within and around Wolverhampton and the surrounding areas. Our main focus is to help candidates secure their ideal position and to sufficiently help fulfil client recruitment needs.

Living in Wolverhampton

If football is a major interest, then you'll be proud to say that your local team are the Wolverhampton Wonders; as they are top of the league. In Wolverhampton you're never more than 10 yards from a Greggs bakery, and if sit-down meals are more your cup of tea; then Wolverhampton also has a whole host of delicious eateries.

There are lots of activities in and around Wolverhampton; Wolverhampton Art Gallery, Moseley Old Hall, Wightwick Manor & Gardens, St Peters Church and also some beautiful parks to go to relax and enjoy such as; Wild Zoological Park, David Austin Roses, West Park.

“The White Rose county of Yorkshire is the UK's largest geographical territory and home to some of the most iconic and beautiful features of northern England.

TEACH IN YORKSHIRE

Find your next teaching job in Yorkshire with Reed Education.

About us

In Leeds, we are the sole supplier to a Multi Academy Trust of 12 schools (set to rise to 30 in a year) for whom we provide all temporary staffing and assist on their permanent recruitment. The trust are the first purely Primary MAT in their Local Authority. In addition to this, the Leeds office hold the Council's Complex Needs contract, and are therefore the lead supplier of all teaching and tutoring staff to children currently awaiting school places.

In our Bradford office we hold in excess of 5 exclusive agreements and through these act as lead supplier of temporary vacancies in all schools. Furthermore, we have long-lasting and strong relationships with many LA schools, dating back to the days when we worked in partnership with the City Council to run the 'Bradford Supply Service'.

Our Sheffield office are the local council's preferred and recommended supplier. This makes them the first port of call for all short and long-term supply bookings, and the preferred agency for permanent work in the area.

Living in Yorkshire

The gateway to the Dales, our Bradford office sits in the heart of Bronte country. As the first UNESCO City of Film, Bradford's National Science and Media Museum, City Park, Alhambra Theatre and Cartwright Hall attract millions of visitors per year. As one of the UK's most culturally diverse cities, Bradford has something for everyone – city living to countryside charm.

As the fastest growing city in the UK, and the third largest, Leeds is soon to become the northern-most destination of HS2, making travel around the UK fast and easy. The city is full of history with its medieval town hall and beautiful city centre. Leeds is the North's best loved night out, whether you're looking for a fancy restaurant or bar, or a good old night on the tiles; from live music through to the famous Yorkshire Ale Trail, Leeds has it all.

Sheffield is the home of the Arctic Monkeys, the footballing giants of Wednesday and United and the rolling hills of the Peak District. Since its days as the Steel City, Sheffield has developed into a northern hub of enterprise, industry and, of course, snooker! Famed for its live music scene, you'll never find a night where bands and acts are not performing in the city's many bars and venues.

The cost of living:

In Yorkshire, you'll pay £37 per month less for gas and electricity than in London, your child care will cost an average of £700 per month and city centre rent will cost an average of £487 for 1 bedroom, as opposed to £1651 in London.

So move to Yorkshire, the home of Last of the Summer Wine, the Terrier, the Pudding, Flat Caps, a good-ol-pint-o-ale, Ilkley Moor, the Bronte Sisters, the coast at Whitby and Scarborough, Emley Moor mast, the Tour-De-Yorkshire and of course, Betties Tea Rooms – and join us in truly Educating Yorkshire.

